

Betty Jean Shaddix Lewis was born and grew up around Funston, Ga. She went to grammar school in Funston, and to high school in Moultrie. She met her future husband, Audrey Lewis, Jr., in the spring of 1952, at a square dance in Sylvester, Ga.

Millpond Rd

Lloyd Lionel Shaddix worked as a sharecropper on farms North and West of Funston. The family moved with him from farm to farm in the 1930s and 1940s.

Lloyd spent some time as a gin operator in Funston. The family lived in a house across the road from the cotton gin.

● = Share Cropping Location

Funston - Sale City Rd

Funston - Sigsbee Rd

Bonnie Tucker Rd

School Bus 2.6 Miles to Elem School

Funston - Sale City Rd

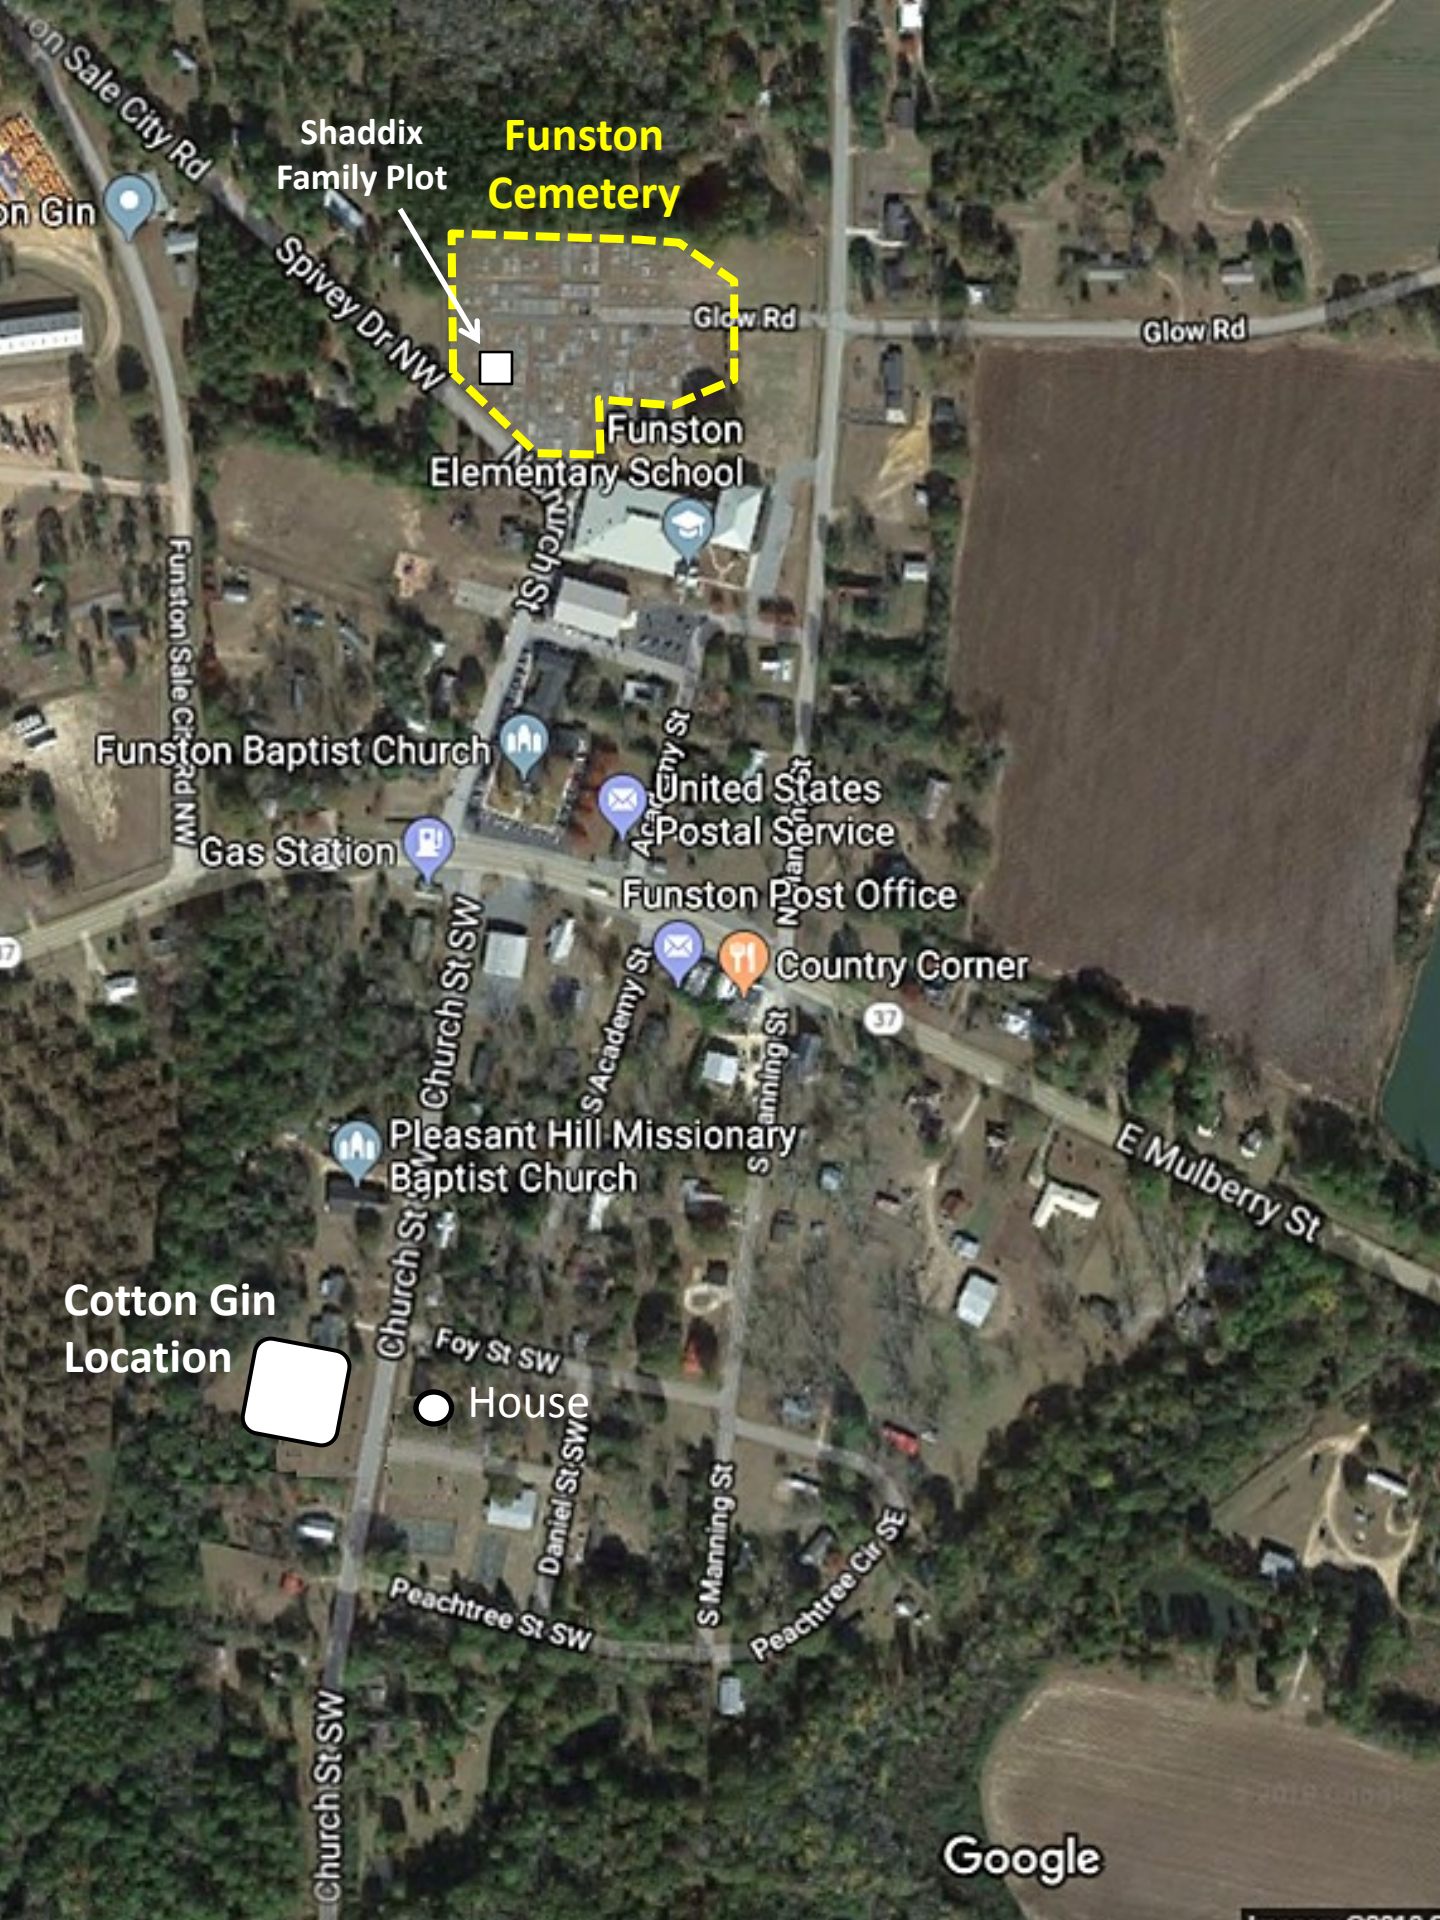

Funston Cemetery & Funston Elem School

Funston

Cotton Gin

Google

Church St

Funston Cemetery

Shaddix Family Plot

Funston Elementary School

Funston Baptist Church

United States Postal Service

Funston Post Office

Country Corner

Pleasant Hill Missionary Baptist Church

Cotton Gin Location

House

Moultrie, GA

1950 Home of Ralph Allegood and Mae Shaddix Allegood. Ralph and Mae had 4 children, born 1937 to 1950.

412 North Main Street

Betty and Audrey Lewis met for the second time at a barn dance in Moultrie, about 3 blocks from Mae and Ralph's house.

Carnegie Library

Department of Labor

Blue Sky Grill

Barbecue Pit

Betty Jean Shaddix attended Moultrie High School. For her senior year, 1949 – 1950, she lived in Moultrie with her sister Mae and her brother in law, Ralph. She walked about a mile to school each morning.

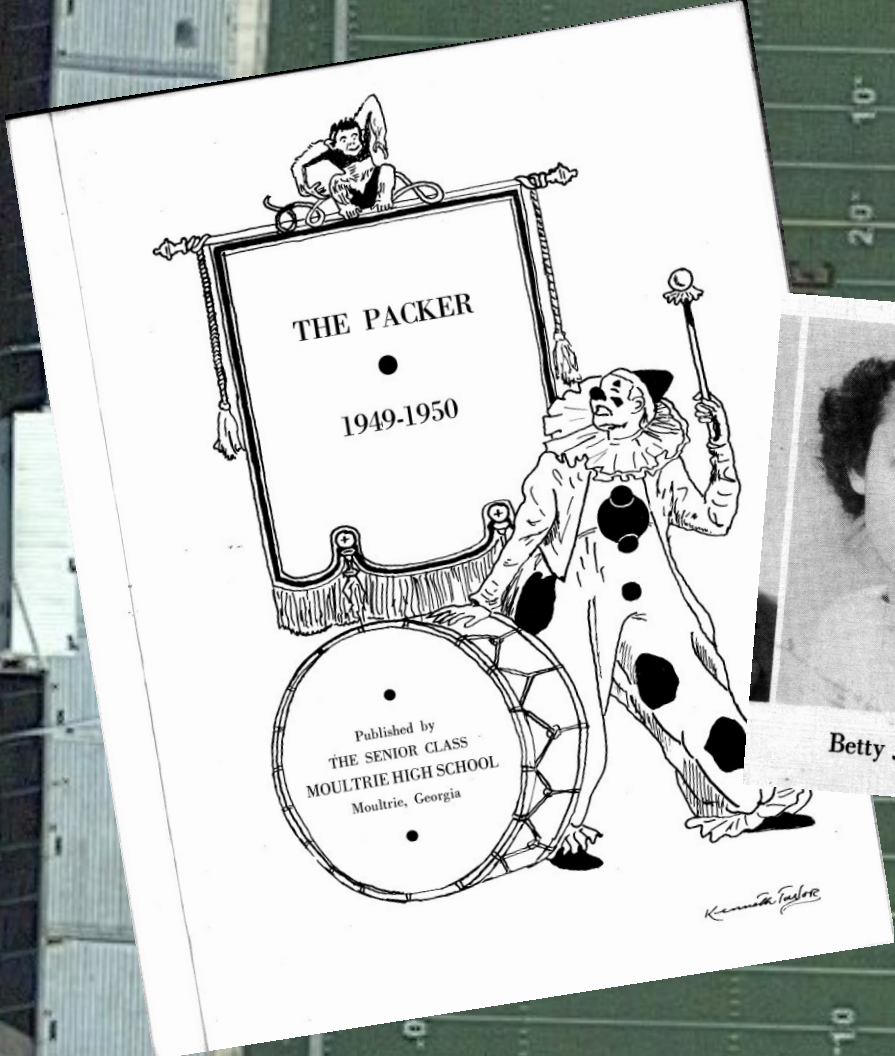

Stringfellow Elementary School

22 min
1.1 miles

401 7th Avenue Southwest

1950 Moultrie High School Location

Betty J. Shaddix